

CIVIL STATUS
INTERNATIONAL LAW ASSOCIATION-150 YEARS 2023

MEMBERS
OF THE STEERING COMMITTEE
(by alphabetical order)

Laurence Brunet, Fabienne Jault-Seseke, Fernanda Machado, Marco Mellone, Mari Nagata, Nicolas Nord, Guillermo Palao Moreno, Louis Perreau-Saussine

Coordinator

Fabienne Jault-Seseke, Professor (Private Law), Paris Saclay University

Assistant/Rapporteur

Inès Giauffret, PhD Student, Paris Saclay University

Laurence Brunet

Legal scholar and Researcher at the Institut des sciences juridique et philosophique de la Sorbonne (UMR 8103) and at the Institut national d'études démographiques INED (UR14). Lecturer (Fundamental Rights and Personal Law) at the Institut d'Etudes Judiciaires of the Université de Paris XI, she is a legal counsel at the Centre de Référence des Maladies Rares du Développement Génital of the Kremlin Bicêtre Hospital. Her research focuses on reproductive rights, parenthood and the status of transgender individuals. She recently co-edited the book La bicatégorisation de sexe — Entre droit, normes et sciences biomédicales, Mare et Martin, 2021

Fabienne Jault-Seseke

Professor of Private Law at the University of Paris Saclay, she is Vice-President of the French Branch of the ILA, Senior Member of the Institut Universitaire de France, Secretary General of the French Committee of Private International Law and member of EGPIIL (European Group of Private International Law).

She specialises in Private International Law. She is the author of numerous publications and in particular of a book on Citizenship and Migration Law (PUF, Thémis, with Sabine Corneloup and Ségolène Barbou des Places).

Fernanda Machado

Brazilian lawyer, admitted in the Rio de Janeiro Bar and in the Paris Bar (Avocate à la Cour), she practices in Family and Succession Law and related Private International Law. She graduated in Law at the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio) and obtained a master's degree in Comparative family law at the University of Paris 8 Vincennes-Saint-Denis. She was an intern at The Hague Conference on Private International Law (international adoption and international child abduction).

Marco Mellone

Italian lawyer, admitted at the Supreme Court, he graduated in Law from the University of Naples and obtained a master's degree in international law at the University of Bologna and a Ph.D. in European Union Law at the University of Bologna and at the University of Strasbourg.

He is the author of several articles and monographs in the field of Private International Law, international business law and domestic law.

Mari Nagata

Professor at Osaka University (Graduate School of Law and Politics), Japan, she specializes in Private International Law and ADR. She co-authored in text books on Conflict of Laws, Private International Law, International Civil Procedures, and International Transaction Law (in Japanese) and recently published in English “Current status and issues of implementing the Hague child abduction convention in Japan”, Japanese Yearbook of International Law Vol. 63 (2020), pp. 212-233 and “Recent Court Decisions on International Adjudicative Jurisdiction in Japan”, Japan Commercial Arbitration Journal Vol. 2 (2021).

Nicolas Nord

Senior lecturer in Private Law at the University of Strasbourg, he is specialised in Private International Law. He is also interested in Chinese law. He is Secretary General of the International Commission on Civil Status. He is the author of numerous publications. He recently co-edited the book La connaissance du droit étranger : à la recherche d'instruments de coopération adaptés études de droit international privé comparé, Société de législation comparée, 2020.

Guillermo Palao Moreno

Professor of Private International Law at the University of Valencia (Spain), he is a member of the European Law Institute (ELI), the Spanish Royal Academy of Law, the International Academy of Comparative Law and the American Association of Private International Law. He is also affiliated with the Centre for Private International Law at the University of Aberdeen (UK). He participated in the work on the European Civil Code and is the author of numerous publications in the various fields of private international law and digital law. He has taught at various universities in Europe and Latin America.

Louis Perreau-Saussine

Professor of Private Law at the University of Paris-Dauphine-PSL, he specialises in Private International Law.

He is the author of numerous publications on Private International Law. He recently co-edited the book L'impérativité en droit international des affaires : questions d'actualité (Société de législation comparée, 2020).

He is a member of various scientific societies, such as the Comité Français de Droit International Privé, the Comité Roumain de Droit International Privé, the Association Notariat-Université, and the ILA.

Assistant/Rapporteur

Inès Giauffret

Phd candidate at Paris Saclay University, she works on the right to effective judicial protection in asylum and migration. She is a member of the research center "Droit des affaires et des Nouvelles technologies" (DANTE), she is also a teaching assistant at the University of Versailles and participated, as an assistant researcher for the project "FRICoRe - Fundamental Rights in Courts and Regulation" (European Union Justice Program, 2018-2022, www.fricore.eu) to the draft of a Casebook of the Court of Justice of the European Union on the right to effective justice of third-country nationals. She also contributes to the annual chronicle on migration law in the Revue critique de droit international privé.